

Annual Report 2013

Ordinary women...extraordinary impact®

Dear Members and Friends,

Thank you for everything you did to make 2013 a great year for Impact Austin. You helped enrich the lives of thousands of Central Texans through our high-impact grants and ensured our ability to continue developing informed women philanthropists.

2013 was a special year for us: we celebrated our tenth anniversary. And what an anniversary it was! We met our annual membership goal, which allowed us to extend five $101,000 grants in June. We had 112 women work on a Focus Area Committee, which gave us the opportunity to introduce women to the multiple needs in the community and equip them to evaluate grant applications successfully. That we had more than 250 women volunteer their time in some way highlights what a volunteer-driven organization we continue to be.

This year also marked the beginning of our strategic planning process, which we've titled "Stepping Up to Meet Our Future." While we are able to boast 10 successful years, we continue to explore new ways to nurture our membership and support our purpose to ensure that we thrive for another 10 years and beyond. We look forward to sharing information with you as we continue on this journey. Thank you!

Impact Austin's fiscal year 2013 ran from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013. An independent audit was conducted by Gindler, Chappell, Morrison, & Co. P.C. The complete audited financial statements and the auditor's report can be found on our website at http://www.impact-austin.org/downloads/documents/2013-ia_financialstatements.pdf

OUR VISION: Our women are inspirational role models reaching their full giving potential for a better quality of life in our community. We will ensure our long-term sustainability by tapping into the talents of our members and building Impact Austin from the "inside out."

A Year in Review: 2013

A REVIEW OF 2013 GRANTMAKING

On June 10, 2013, the members of Impact Austin awarded five grants of $101,000 each to the following Austin-area nonprofits: ZACH Theatre, LifeWorks, Colorado River Foundation, GENAustin, and Manos de Cristo. Since our founding in 2003, Impact Austin has distributed $4,177,000, bettering the lives of thousands of Central Texans.

In April 2013, Impact Austin's youth initiative, Girls Giving Grants (g3), selected its Community Partner, Easter Seals of Central Texas. The $5,900 grant helps fund the organization's Sliding Fee Scale program, which provides economically disadvantaged members of the community with medical rehabilitation services on a sliding fee. G3 is open to girls in grades 8-12, with the individual annual membership fee of $100 pooled to maximize its impact on the Central Texas community. Since 2006, g3 has distributed over $35,000 in grants.

MEMBER AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Impact Austin organized several events throughout the year. In the fall of 2012, Impact Austin hosted the Women's Collective Giving Grantmakers Network (WCGN) Leadership Forum, a conference for this national organization connecting women's collective giving groups, which was attended by representatives from more than 30 organizations; a Speaker Series, featuring Kathy LeMay, founder, president and CEO of Raising Change; and Impact Austin on the Move, a day of field trips to past grant recipients, Austin Child Guidance Center and CASA of Travis County. In January 2013, Impact Austin held its annual Discovery Day, featuring several experts' views on the most pressing issues facing the Central Texas community, while the spring featured a Book Club to discuss "Creating Change Through Family Philanthropy: The Next Generation," Volunteer Days with the 2012 Community Partners, and the organization's 10-year Anniversary Celebration. The fiscal year culminated in the Annual Meeting, held on June 10, 2013 at Stateside at the Paramount.

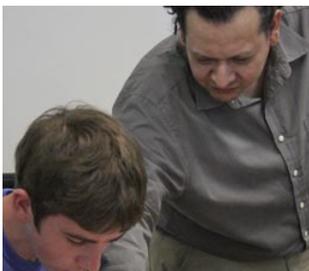

2013 Community Partners

ZACH THEATRE

Culture Community Partner

ZACH Theatre's Arts Across the Curriculum is an arts integration and professional development program that trains elementary teachers in theatre techniques that actively engage students in language arts, math, science and social studies curriculum. The goal of this program is to provide arts-rich education resulting in higher grades, test scores and graduation rates.

LIFEWORKS

Education Community Partner

LifeWorks' Workforce Development Program targets youth who have been emancipated out of foster care and are at risk for joblessness, homelessness and/or incarceration. The goal of this initiative is to break the cycle of youth moving from foster care to adult social services by assisting youth ages 16-24 in becoming self-sufficient with the ability to seek and maintain employment, sustain housing and cope with the challenges of daily adult life in a responsible manner.

COLORADO RIVER FOUNDATION

Environment Community Partner

In partnership with the Austin Independent School District and Austin Water, the Colorado River Foundation has created the Texas Colorado River Mobile Learning Experience, an environmental education program focusing on water conservation. The mobile classroom will use interactive exhibits to enhance learning and reinforce the link between personal behavior and the environment.

GENAUSTIN

Family Community Partner

GENaustin's 180 Program provides court-ordered services for girls involved or at high risk of becoming involved with the juvenile justice system, via an established curriculum and workshops. The program goals are to reduce or prevent court involvement, increase bonding and pro-social behaviors, and improve in-school functioning. The program will also provide additional support and follow-up for girls who complete the program.

MANOS DE CRISTO

Health & Wellness Community Partner

Manos de Cristo's "Grow the Clinic" project will fund the purchase of three new and complete dental chair systems to service underprivileged patients at the new dental clinic location for decades to come.
